Parish Announcements

1. ADULT AND HIGH SCHOOL CATECHISM classes on Wednesday 16 March. Adults at 6.30pm in 1119 Oxley Road and high school children (girls at 6.00pm, boys at 7.00pm) back in the shed.

2. THE LADIES’ RETREAT WAS CANCELED due to lack of interest. Men sign up now for the April retreat or it will likewise be canceled.

3. THE THIRD BANNS OF MARRIAGE are announced for Mr. David Michael Massey and Miss Marcela Carolina Saborido both of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, Oxley who intend to marry on the 14th of May, 2011 in Argentina. Anyone knowing of a canonical impediment to this marriage is bound to make it known to the priest.

5. BOOK REVIEW: “Characters of the Reformation” is a book that will easily interest everyone. Hilaire Belloc dissects 23 men and women involved in the English Reformation. For instance he calls Anne Boleyn the pivot figure of the Reformation. It was her iron determination to be Queen rather than merely a mistress which launched the movement - and she was ugly! Then there’s Thomas Cromwell, Oliver’s great-uncle, who looted and destroyed the English Monasteries making himself fabulously wealthy in the process. Belloc also flatly contradicts the classic “Elizabethan myth”, describing Elizabeth as a miserable puppet of William Cecil, and a woman who was never able to do her own will in public life. Popes and Saints also feature so it is not just a “scandal sheet”. This book brings to life a crucial era in history, a tragic era, which continues to have the profoundest effect on our world today.

6. PLEASE SUPPORT THE HOLY CROSS SEMINARY by purchasing a copy of “Tradition in Africa” news bulletin. Available for sale in the library at $6.00 per copy. Proceeds of sales go directly towards the seminarians fees at the Holy Cross Seminary.

7. LADIES NEEDED to do flower arranging on the altar. Please contact Alicia Truter 337 43083.

8. FORTY DAYS FOR LIFE needs volunteers to pray at the abortion clinic in Bowen Hills during Lent. This is a good lenten exercise. See the notice on the bulletin board.

9. PARENTS please explain to your children that they are not to pick the neighbour’s cane and strew it over the church yard. They should stay on our side of the fence and leave the cane alone. Both boys and girls are acquiring the bad habit of making these messes, not only on Sundays after Mass, but also when the school bus arrives in the afternoon. Thank you.

10. FOOTY TIPPING. The season is almost upon us and the time has come to join the parish footy tipping comp. Cost is $20 to enter.

11. GOLF COMP. All budding golfers are invited to enter the free Parish Golf Competition again, with the aim of taking bragging rights off the current champion, Anthony Massey. Email Bernard Gaynor (bernardandellen@sctelco.net.au) to register for either competition.
