8. BOOK REVIEW: "Monsignor Robert Hugh Benson" by Sr M.S.R. Monaghan.
   Excerpt: "In the books of Robert Hugh Benson will be found all the beauty and truth of Catholic doctrine and tradition put forward in a language that is easily readable and a style that is suited to the minds of people of our day. This type of literature needs to be read and pondered over if Modernism, as denounced by Pope St. Pius X in Pascendi Dominici Gregis and portrayed by Benson in Lord of the World, is not to overwhelm us."

   "That was written by a Brisbane nun in the latter days of Vatican II and about an era before the World War 1, yet it holds just as true today. Though this is a biography of the author Benson it contains many passages and quotes which we find very pertinent today. (Benson was the son of the Archbishop of Canterbury, C of E, and converted to Catholicism from being a C of E parson)

   This slim little volume is very interesting, easily read and provides plenty of subjects for contemplation which will help us in Lent. As Father Vachon says, "Have a happy Lent."

9. PLEASE SUPPORT THE HOLY CROSS SEMINARY by purchasing a copy of "Tradition in Africa" news bulletin. Available for sale in the library at $6.00 per copy. Proceeds of sales go directly towards the seminarians fees at the Holy Cross Seminary.
