Pieter Bruegel the Elder Parable of the Sower 1557 (Oil on panel) Gospel of St Luke 8. 4-15, Sexagesima Sunday
The landscape depicts a peasant sowing seeds, while Christ preaches to a small group in the distance, on the shores of a lake. A rugged mountain range reaches towards heaven.

The Church's Present Days of Fast and Abstinence

Fast and Abstinence, under pain of mortal sin, must be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday

Abstinence forbids the eating of meat and meat products for everyone over the age of seven. Everyone aged between 21 and 59 years inclusive is bound to observe the laws of Fast. On the days of Fast only one full meal is allowed, supplemented by two small collations (which combined should not equal the full meal) as required to maintain strength and according to one's needs. The full meal may include meat except on days of Abstinence. Eating between meals is not permitted but liquids including milk and fruit juices are allowed. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected the law does not oblige.

Traditional Days of Fast and Abstinence

Abstinence alone on all Fridays of the year unless a Holy Day of Obligation falls on Friday.

Fast alone on all days in Lent, Ember Wednesday and Ember Saturday

Fasting and Abstinence on Ash Wednesday, all Fridays in Lent and Ember Fridays.

Fasting or penance during Advent is a more ancient tradition, but is highly recommended to prepare oneself for the anniversary of the birth of Our Lord and Redeemer.

The Church's Present Holy Days of Obligation

All Sundays in the year
The Ascension of Our Lord (solemnised the following Sunday)
The Assumption of Our Lady – 15 August
Christmas Day – 25 December

On these days, every Catholic is obliged, under pain of mortal sin, to hear Mass. Since Our Lord suffered death in order to institute Holy Mass, it requires a very serious inconvenience such as sickness or notable damage to one's health or property, to excuse one from this obligation.

Traditional Holy Days of Obligation

All Sundays in the year
The Circumcision of Our Lord – 1 January
The Ascension
The Assumption of Our Lady – 15 August
All Saints' – 1 November
Christmas Day – 25 December
